

List of entities

1. Login: The student's login information, which includes email and their password, is shown by this object.
2. Student: This entity shows the student's information, including their name, DOB, gender, M&G balance, and country, among other things. The student's table will contain all of their personal information as well as general data about them.
3. Courses: The university courses have fields like credits, title, course number.
4. Universities: The university entity shows the ranking, fees, offerings, faculty, student payment and location.
5. Profile: This object shows student information, including registration id, degree, and work experience.
6. Major: A major is an entity that shows whether the student is graduate or undergraduate and also their date of registration.